

Panda Powell, M.B.A., CRA is celebrating 34 years in research administration in 2019. She has been UNCW Director of Sponsored Programs and Research Compliance (SPARC) for the past eight years. Prior to coming to UNCW, her career has encompassed university, state, private, non-profits as well as consulting work. She received her B.A. from the University of Kentucky, M.B.A. from University of Phoenix and obtained her CRA (Certified Research Administrator) in June 2005. Well versed in federal guidance including the new Uniform Guidance, she has extensive knowledge of budgeting and cost accounting standards, proposal development and management as well as research compliance. Panda has presented at UNCW, local, regional and national Research Administration conferences as well recently visiting the Russian Federal where she participated in Roundtable and Conference Social Expertise exchange. In 2017, Panda received one of two NCURA-Eurasia Foundation Global Fellowships where she visited Tyumen State University in Tyumen, Russia. Panda is currently a National Council of University Research Administrators (NCURA) Peer Reviewer and a Mentor in the NCURA Global Mentor Program for Research Administrators Pilot Project.

